

Curriculum vitae Giuseppe Costa

Dott. Giuseppe Costa was born in Naples on September 21, 1965. He is assistant professor in Audiology and Phoniatics at the “L. Vanvitelli” University, Naples, Italy.

He graduated in Medicine and Surgery in 1990 and he is specialized in Otorhinolaryngology (1994 at Federico II University, Naples, Italy).

He teaches Audiology and Phoniatics in several degree courses of the “Luigi Vanvitelli” University:

- Specialization School of Otolaryngology
- Degree Course in Physiotherapy
- Degree Course of Medicine and Surgery
- Degree Course of Speech Therapy
- Degree Course of Psychological and Neurological Rehabilitation in childhood

Member of the Italian Society of Audiology and Phoniatics (SIAF)

Clinical interests:

- Laryngology
- Diagnosis and therapy of upper airway diseases
- Assessment of Speech and language disabilities in childhood
- Audio-vestibular assessment in adult and pediatric population.

Author and co-author of several oral communications (abstracts) and scientific posters in national and international conferences.

Author and co-author of some chapters in scientific volumes concerning phoniatics, laryngology and audiology.

Author and co-author of many scientific publications on national and international journals.