

Lecturer in Roman Law at the Law Faculty of the University of Genoa (Imperia section) from 1995 to 1999. Associate professor of Roman Public Law and Roman Law at the Law Faculty of the Second University of Naples from 1998 to 2006. From 2006 to 2009 "professore straordinario". Currently "professore ordinario" at the same University. He has been awarded scholarships abroad for several months in the years 1979-81 by the National Research Council (CNR) and has studied themes concerning with history of Roman Law, focusing on questions of general theory, and history of historiography (iudex, patria potestas, furiosus, surdus, mutus, morbus, vitium, res se moventes, auctoritas, Res gestae divi Augusti, princeps, Lex de imperio Vespasiani, persona, capacity, power, constitution, "State", sovereignty, effectiveness, de Francisci, Ferrero, Betti, Bachofen, Maine, Ferrari dalle Spade, Gasparri, Savigny, Orestano, Mommsen, Riccobono, La Pira, Betti, Crifò and Bensa).