

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Adele

Surname: Pastena

Date of birth: 25 November 1969

Place of birth: Naples

Address: via Eleuterio Ruggero n° 32 – Caserta (Italy)

Academic position: Associate Professor

EDUCATION:

1993: University of Naples Federico II – Faculty of Law, Naples

- full degree in Law

SKILLS DEVELOPED

Foreign languages

May 1990 / June 1991: British Council, Naples

- good working knowledge of the English language by successfully completing the Oxford Preliminary Level and the Cambridge First Certificate Exams

1996/1997 – 1997/1998: Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli, Law Faculty

- attending two English language courses with an emphasis on law and legal register

1997/1998: Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli, Law Faculty

- attending a German language course with an emphasis on law and legal register
- good knowledge of the French language

Information technology

- perfect knowledge of Windows 95 – 98 – 2000 – XP – Vista and regular use of Word, Excel, Power Point, Publisher and Access programmes

- holding a European Computer Licence (ECDL) since July 2002

PROFESSIONAL TITLES HELD

1995: Appeal Tribunal, Naples

- becoming a fully qualified lawyer following the Professional Lawyer National Examination.

ACADEMIC PROFESSIONAL CAREER AND EXPERIENCE

since 1994: collaborating to the Law Faculty Chairs of Comparative Legal Systems and Comparative Private Law, Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli

9-14 June 1996: collaborating to the organisation of an Inter-university Conference on the topic of Economic, Monetary, Financial and Social Europe: Operative Procedures and Time Schedule, held in Caserta

1998 (autumn semester): visiting scholar at the California University (US), Berkeley and Hastings (San Francisco) Law Faculties by also carrying out research projects in collaboration with Professor Jim Gordley

3-5 June 1999 – Caserta/Capri: member of the Organising Committee of the XIV Biennial Colloquium on the topic One Hundred Years of Comparative Legal Studies: What Lies Next in the XXI Century - held by the Italian Association of Comparative Law Studies

15, 16, 17 July 1999 – Trento: attending the International Conference on The Common Core of European Private Law, while also carrying out research activity at the Department of Legal Science of the Law Faculty, University of Trento

21 December 1999: obtaining a PhD title in Comparative Law of Economics and Finance from Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli following discussion of the PhD thesis on the topic of Competition Law in the European Union: a comparative analysis of rules and regulations, legal bodies and institutions established in France, Germany, Great Britain, Italy and Spain, with an early comparative approach to US antitrust law – discussion of this topic gratified all members sitting on the Examination Panel

31 May-1/2 June 2001 – Taormina (Messina): attending the XV Biennal Colloquium on the topic of Fundamental Rights in Europe - held by the Italian Association of Comparative Law Studies

22-24 May 2003 – Pisa: attending the XVI Biennal Colloquium on the topic of Science and Law in the Prism of Comparative Law - held by the Italian Association of Comparative Law Studies

12-14 May 2005 – Brescia: attending the XVII Biennal Colloquium on the topic of Global Law versus Local Law – held by the Italian Association of Comparative Law Studies

10-12 May 2007 – Ferrara: attending the XIX Biennal Colloquium on the topic of Patrimony, Persons and New Methods of Governing the Law - held by the Italian Association of Comparative Law Studies

18-20 June 2009 – Urbino: attending the XX Biennal Colloquium on the topic of Nuovi temi e tecniche della comparazione giuridica – held by the Italian Association of Comparative Law Studies

1998/1999 and 1999/2000 academic years - Law Faculty, Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli: holding a series of seminars on the Law of Competition

1999/2000 - 2000/2001 - 2001/2002 academic years - Scuola di Specializzazione (post lauream) Jean Monnet in Diritto ed Economia delle Comunità Europee (Jean Monnet Postgraduate School in EC Law and Economics, Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli: holding a series of lectures on Comparative Analysis of US Antitrust Law and EU Competition Law

2002/2003 academic year - Scuola di Ateneo per l'Alta Formazione Europea Jean Monnet (earlier Postgraduate School being renamed into Jean Monnet University School for Higher European Education and Training): holding a contract teaching position on the subject of How to Protect Competition in a Comparative Law System, as part of the main academic teaching position in Comparative Legal Systems since December 1999: Scuola di Ateneo per l'Alta Formazione Europea Jean Monnet, Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli: providing tutorial services to students enrolled at the Jean Monnet School on taught courses in Comparative Private Law, Muslim Law and the Law in Islamic Countries, and Comparative and European Business Law

since December 1999: covering duties as vice-general tutor committed to coordinating the teaching and research activities performed at the Jean Monnet School, and acting as a Secretary to the Enlarged Teacher Council of such School from November 2000 to March 2002

In addition to participating in EF 2000 'Young Researcher' Project, dealing with Fiscal and Financial Aspects of International Trade, she was awarded a two-year scholarship (from 1 March 2001 to 28 February 2003) following a public selection procedure based on qualifications and interview. Being designed for post-PhD research work at the Law Faculty of Seconda Università di Napoli, this scholarship culminated in a final dissertation thesis on the topic of Common Principles of EU Competition Practices and Procedures in the Area of Public Services, with an emphasis on the System of Insurance, Financial and Credit Services

28 March 2001: obtaining qualification as a school teacher of Legal and Economic Subjects (AO19 Teaching Subject) from Sovrintendenza Scolastica of the Campania Region, following a nationally organised public selection procedure based on examination and qualification – notice for teaching vacancies was announced by D.D.G. of 1 April 1999 (Ministerial Decree of 30 January 1998, n° 39)

9 February 2002 to 8 July 2002 – Jean Monnet School: attending a training and vocational course in EU Law co-financed by the European Commission within the framework of Robert Schuman Action Plan

2001/2002 - 2002/2003 - 2003/2004 academic years: providing paid assistant-tutoring services to course members of the Specialist School for the Legal Professions of Seconda Università di Napoli

since 4 July 2003: appointed as cultore della materia (assisting the teaching chair in Comparative Legal Systems and Comparative Private Law) by unanimous decision of the members sitting on the Law Faculty Council of Seconda Università (Faculty Council decision n° 11/2003)

10 January 2005: following a nationally held comparative assessment procedure designed to cover academic research position in the teaching subject of Comparative Private Law (IUS/02), she became a University Researcher (Rectoral Decree n° 50) to perform duties at the earlier mentioned Scuola di Ateneo per l'Alta Formazione Europea Jean Monnet of Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli, this name however changing into Facoltà di Studi Politici e per l'Alta Formazione Europea e Mediterranea Jean Monnet (Jean Monnet Faculty of Political Studies and Higher European Education and Training with effect from 10 January 2005) – she is currently part of the permanent university research staff of the Faculty

2004/2005 academic year: in charge of teaching Comparative Legal Systems subject at the Scuola di Ateneo per l'Alta Formazione Europea Jean Monnet, now being re-named into Facoltà di Studi Politici e per l'Alta Formazione Europea e Mediterranea Jean Monnet (Faculty of Political Studies and Higher European and Mediterranean Education and Training) of Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli

2004/2005 academic year: teaching a series of lessons on Comparative Legal Systems as part of the Biennial Master Course (Level II) in Italian and European Higher Education and Training in European Community and International Affairs

2005/2006 and 2006/2007 academic years: covering a teaching position in Comparative Legal Systems on the Degree Course in Legal Science at the Economics Faculty of Università del Sannio

2006/2007 academic year: covering a teaching module on the topic of Comparing and Harmonising different legal traditions as part of the curricular teaching in Comparative Private Law on the five-year Degree Course in Law (Magistrale), run by the Law Faculty of Seconda Università di Napoli

2006/2007 - 2007/2008 - 2008/2009 academic years: teaching Comparative Private Law on the three-year short degree course in Political Science (Institutional orientation) at the Jean Monnet Faculty of Political Studies and European and Mediterranean Higher Education and Training of Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli

2009/2010 - 2010/2011 academic years: covering a teaching position in Common Law at the Economics Faculty of Università del Sannio

2009/2010 - 2010/2011 academic years: teaching Class actions and comparative consumer law at the Jean Monnet Faculty of Political Studies and European and Mediterranean Higher Education and Training of Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli

2010/2011 - 2011/2012 academic years: teaching Comparative Legal Systems on the three-year short degree course in Political Science (International orientation) at the Jean Monnet Faculty of

Political Studies and European and Mediterranean Higher Education and Training of Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli

2012/2013 - 2013/2014 - 2014/2015 - 2015/2016 academic years: teaching Comparative Legal Systems on the three-year short degree course in Political Science (International orientation) at the Jean Monnet Department of Political Science of Seconda Università degli Studi di Napoli

2016/2017 - 2017/2018 - 2018/2019-2020/2021 academic years: teaching Comparative Legal Systems on the three-year short degree course in Political Science (International orientation) at the Jean Monnet Department of Political Science of Università degli Studi della Campania "Luigi Vanvitelli"

2021/2022 academic year: teaching Comparative Legal Systems on the three-year short degree course in Political Science (International orientation) at the Department of Political Science of Università degli Studi della Campania "Luigi Vanvitelli"

► Other academic duties include:

- serving as a full (internal) member of the PhD Research Committee panel on Comparative Law and Integration Processes run at the Jean Monnet Faculty of Political Studies and European and Mediterranean Higher Education and Training

◄ Earlier duties include:

- participating in the University-run Research Project (EF 2006) on the topic of Harmonising European and Mediterranean Company Legislation with an emphasis on taxation criteria

- participating in the National Research Project (PRIN 2006) as a member of the local research unit investigating on the topics of Antichi e attuali modelli proprietari pubblici e privati nell'area europea – mediterranea (Old and current models of public and private property in the European and Mediterranean area) and Giurisdizione ed economia pubblica e privata. Profili Storici e comparatistici tra antico regime ed età contemporanea (Jurisdiction and public and private economy – Historical and comparative features in ancient régime and contemporary world)

- participating in the University-run Research Project (EF 2007) on the topic of La valutazione dell'impatto accademico e istituzionale delle problematiche relative alla cooperazione giudiziaria nell'area euro-mediterranea (Assessing academic and institutional effects arising from judicial co-operation in the Euro-Mediterranean area)

- participating in the University-run Research Project (EF 2008) on the topic of Le nuove frontiere della proprietà (Property: new frontiers)

- participating in the University-run Research Project (EF 2009) on the topic of Le relazioni tra ordinamenti giuridici di fronte ai processi di conciliazione.

- participating in the University-run Research Project (EF 2010) on the topic of Il nuovo concetto di frontiera

- participating in the University-run Research Project on the topic of Fonti di energia e approvvigionamento energetico: profili giuridici ed economici

- participating in the University-run Research Project on the topic of Lo sport - Per una società più solidale ed inclusiva

- participating in the National Research Project (PRIN 2010-2011) on the topic L'acqua: risorsa non riproducibile, bene pubblico, fattore di sviluppo, causa di guerra

- participating in the University-run Research Project on the topic of Diritto e società inclusiva nel contesto globale
- participating in the University-run Research Group Certus Terrae -Centro di ricerche per la tutela e lo sviluppo di territorio, ambiente ed energia
- participating in the University-run Research Project on the topic of L'operatività dei principi di ragionevolezza e proporzionalità in dottrina e in giurisprudenza
- participating in the University-run Research Project on the topic of Mediterraneo, Migrazioni e Minori