

Prof. MASSIMO RUBINO DE RITIS

Graduated in Law in 1984 magna cum laude at the University "Federico II" in Naples, in 1987 he specialized in Business law at the University "Federico II" of Naples. In 1996 he received a PhD at from the University of Pisa.

Former Assistant Professor in Business Law, since November 1st 2002 he is a tenured Associate Professor of Business Law (IUS/04). As such he served first in the Faculty of Law, University of Molise and then (from 2007 to date) at the Faculty of Law of the Second University of Naples.

On July 28, 2010 he became suitable of being hired as Full Professor of Business Law.

He has taught business law and related subjects in the Faculty of Law of the SUN, in the Faculty of Law, University of Molise, in the Faculty of Education of the University Suor Orsola Benincasa, in Faculty of Economics, University of Naples "Federico II" (Master's Degree), in the School of Public Administration of Caserta, in the Centro Ricerca e Servizio di Ateneo per la Formazione G.A. Colozza of the University of Molise, in the University of Roma Tre (Master for business lawyers), and in several graduate schools for legal professions (University of Molise, Università degli Studi Roma Tre, Università degli Studi Suor Orsola Benincasa, Second University of Naples).

He currently serves, as Full Professor, the Faculty of Law of the Second University of Naples, in charge of Business Law (Master's Degree) and Banking Law.

Lawyer since 1988, he was also admitted before the High Court of Cassazione. He is a consultant to entrepreneurs in the field of corporate law (assistance in the preparation of acts of incorporation and shareholder agreements, implementation of financial transactions, transfers of equity interests and control holdings), banking (banking and financial services) , Intellectual Property Law (patents and trademarks), bankruptcy law.

He is the author of monographs, articles, and case notes (click here).